Purpose of form

North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) is a supplemental schedule provided by an S corporation to its shareholders. It provides information the shareholders may need to complete their North Dakota income tax returns.

Resident individual, estate, and trust.

If you are a North Dakota resident individual, estate, or trust, your entire distributive share of income from the corporation is subject to North Dakota income tax. You received this schedule only to show your distributive share of the corporation's North Dakota statutory adjustments and tax credits (see Part 3).

Nonresident individual, estate, or trust.

If you are a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, you are subject to North Dakota income tax on your distributive share of the corporation's income that is apportioned and allocated to North Dakota. You received this schedule to show your distributive share of North Dakota income, gains, losses, and deductions (see Part 4); North Dakota statutory adjustments and tax credits (see Part 3); and North Dakota income tax withheld or paid on your North Dakota distributive share of income (see Part 5).

General instructions

The instructions for Parts 3 through 5 of this schedule show where to report the information from Schedule K-1 (Form 60) on your North Dakota income tax return.

Tax year. References to a North Dakota form and line number contained in these instructions are references to the form in use for the 2023 calendar year. However, if you file your return on a calendar year basis, but the corporation files its return on a fiscal year basis, report the amounts on your return for the year in which the corporation's fiscal year ends. For example, if the corporation has a fiscal year ending in February 2024, report the amounts from the 2023 Schedule K-1 (Form 60) on your 2024 tax return. The corporation's tax year is shown at the top of the schedule.

Composite filing election. If you elected to include your North Dakota distributive share of income in a composite filing by the corporation, the information provided on the schedule is only for your information. Retain the schedule for your tax records. The composite income tax paid by the corporation satisfies your North Dakota income tax filing and payment obligations with respect to your North Dakota distributive income from the corporation. If you later choose to revoke your composite filing election and file your own North Dakota income tax return, follow the instructions to Parts 3 through 5 to transfer the amounts from the schedule to your return.

Amended Schedule K-1 (Form 60).

If you receive an amended North Dakota Schedule K-1 from the corporation, you generally must file an amended North Dakota income tax return to report the revised information. Attach a copy of the amended Schedule K-1 to your amended North Dakota income tax return. If you previously elected to be included in a composite filing, and you are not changing that election, no action is required and you should retain the amended Schedule K-1 for your tax records.

Part 4

Nonresident individual, estate, or trust shareholders only—North Dakota income (loss)

Line 22

The apportionment factor is used to determine the North Dakota apportioned income.

Lines 23-35

If you are a nonresident individual, estate, or trust, lines 23 through 35 of Part 4 show your share of the corporation's North Dakota income, gains, losses, and deductions that you must report on your North Dakota income tax return. Transfer these amounts to your North Dakota income tax return as instructed below based on the type of return you are filing.

If the full amount of any item is not included in your adjusted gross income on your federal income tax return because of limitations on the deductibility of a passive activity loss, capital loss, section 179 deduction, or for any other reason, enter on your North Dakota return only that portion of the item included in your federal adjusted gross income.

Attach a statement to your North Dakota income tax return explaining any difference between an amount shown on North Dakota Schedule K-1 (Form 60) and the amount reported on your North Dakota income tax return.
